Our Culture

We believe when you introduce people to truly exquisite chocolate and ingredients, they will be won over instantly. That's the Recchiuti philosophy that started in 1997 and one we still live by today.

Immersed in a world of art and music, our chocolates are a reflection of our inspiration. Crafted with traditional European techniques and equipment, they embody the essence of our creative journey.

Recchiuti exclusively offers our custom-blend chocolates, meticulously crafted by Valrhona to match Michael Recchiuti's discerning palate. Our distinct flavor profiles are unmatched— you won't find them elsewhere.
